Agricultural Course for Returned Soldiers

[BY E. A. HOWES, B.S.A., DEAN OF COLLEGE OF AGRICULTURE.]

The course in agriculture for returned men at the University of Alberta comprise a five months' course in practical work. The work for each month is a separate unit, so that a man may enter at the first of any month and carry out his five months' course without special attention or class work. All the non-essentials are eliminated and wherever possible, actual practice is given. Inasmuch as the larger classes must attend during the winter months, it is unfortunate that an actual practice on the soil is not possible. However, despite this handicap, every effort is made to render the course as practical as possible.

The subjects of the course cover animal husbandry, field husbandry, horticulture, dairying, carpentry, blacksmithing, poultry raising, farm machinery and veterinary science.

In the animal husbandry course we have undertaken to seed 3,000 acres to crop this spring and to break 5,000 acres of new land during the summer.

In the animal husbandry course the live stock judging is done in the College pavilion. The aim of this course is to acquaint the student, not only with the types and the market classes of live stock, but with the characteristics of the different breeds as well. The work of feeding and management of each of the classes of live stock is given concurrently with the judging classes. The training also consists of the art of feeding and training animals for the show ring, while attention is also given to the study of pedigrees and the relationship of improved blood to successful stock raising.

In field husbandry, seeding and soil management are systematically dealt with. In horticulture, vegetables, floriculture, landscape gardening and fruit growing, and forestry are all covered. Opportunity is given so far as possible to have the students themselves do the work called for in the course under the supervision of their instructor.

In the dairying course recommendation is given to the growing importance of this industry, not only in the Province of Alberta but in the whole of Canada. The course covers all the features of the work, from the handling of the dairy herd to the various products of the dairy.

Poultry studies include the breeds and breeding as well as raising, fattening, killing and marketing.

In the carpentry course the men are taught to make simple pieces of equipment and to effect repairs in

"I did not send the telegram stating that I had found Lawrence."

"No," she said, smiling. "I know you didn't. But why do you wish to explain this?"

Foster hesitated. "To begin with, it must have looked as if I wanted to boast about keeping my promise and hint that you owed me something."

"But you were glad you were able to keep your promise?"

"I was," said Foster, "very glad indeed."

Alice gave him a quick glance that thrilled him strangely. "So Lawrence said for you what you would have liked to say yourself? One would imagine he knew your feelings."

"Yes," said Foster steadily. "I didn't tell him, but I think he did know."

He stopped and Alice looked down at the table for a moment. Then she looked up again and met his fixed gaze.

"After all, you would have liked to have my gratitude?"

There was something in her face that stirred his blood, and forgetting his drawbacks he made a reckless plunge.

"I wanted it tremendously, but it wasn't enough."

"Not enough? Aren't you rather hard to satisfy?" she asked with a hint of pride that deceived but did not stop him.

"I'm afraid I'm very rash," he answered quickly. "You see, I wanted your love; I wanted you. But I was afraid to ask."

She looked at him in a way he did not understand, although her manner enforced a curious restraint.

"Now I wonder why?"

"You're so beautiful! I don't hope you'd come down to my level. I'd nothing to offer."

"You have unselfishness, loyalty, unflinching steadfastness. Are those nothing?"

Foster felt embarrassed, but the sense of restraint was stronger. Alice had somehow imposed it and he must wait until she took it away. He thought she wanted him to finish.

"Then I knew my disadvantages. In many ways, Canada is a hard country, and I'm poor."

"Did you think that would count for very much? We are not rich at the Garth."

"I seemed to know that if by any chance you loved me you would not flinch. But there were other things: your upbringing and traditions. I couldn't hope your parents would agree."

Then Alice got up with a quiet grace he thought stately and stood facing him. There was a strange new softness in her eyes that had yet a hint of pride.

"I don't think I am unduly afraid, but it is my right to choose my husband for myself." She paused and his heart beat fast as he waited until she resumed: "The evening I came to the orchard I had chosen you."

He held out his hands with a low cry of triumph and she came to him. Next morning Foster saw Featherstone, who listened without surprise, and then remarked: "It would perhaps have been better if you had come to me before the matter went so far; but I can't lay much stress on this. The times are changing."

"I couldn't, sir. You see, until last night—"

Featherstone nodded. "Yes, of course! But all that's done with. I can't understand how the absurd notion came into my mind."

"Things did look suspicious," said Foster, smiling.

"Well," resumed Featherstone, "except for that ridiculous interval, I liked you from the beginning, as did my wife. Besides, it would be very hard for either of us to refuse you anything, and if Alice is satisfied—"

But there's another consideration; I understand from Lawrence that your business is not large, and although Miss Stephen wants him to extend it, this won't augment your share. Well, you understand why I must ask you to wait a year, until we see how you get on."

Foster, who had succeeded better than he expected, thanked him and agreed, and a few days later returned to the Crossing. The Featherstones were coming to stay there for a time, and business demanded his attention. He had long worked hard, but had now an object that spurred him to almost savage activity. He resented the loss of time when Walters was brought to trial and he had to attend the court. The man was sentenced for robbery, and Foster's evidence, although objected to by the defence, sufficed to prove that Fred Hulton had no complicity in the theft.

A few weeks later, when Featherstone and his family were at the Crossing, Hulton sent for Foster.

"I suppose you don't want to sell the mill?" he asked.

"No," said Foster, "business looks like booming and our chances are pretty good."

Hulton made a sign of agreement. "That's so, I reckon you could do a bigger trade than you have the dollars to handle. However, I guess you and Featherstone mean to continue the partnership?"

"Yes," said Foster, quietly, "we stick together."

"Although he is going to marry a lady who will invest some money in the business? If your friendship stands that test, it must be pretty sound. But I'd better state why I sent for you. Our trade is growing fast, and there's a risk of our running short of half-worked material. Well, if you won't sell your mill, you must enlarge it on a scale that will enable you to keep us going, besides coping with your other orders. I'm open to supply the capital, and have thought out a rough proposition. Give him the papers, Percival."

The treasurer did so, and Foster studied the terms with keen satisfaction.

"If there's anything you don't agree to, you can indicate it," Hulton remarked.

Foster hesitated. "It's a very fair and liberal offer, but I wouldn't like to take it, so to speak, as a reward. You see, I didn't—"

"Expect anything from me," Hulton suggested with dry amusement. "You were acting for Featherstone, but were willing to do me a favor! Now, you can regard the thing as a plain business proposition. I get a number of advantages, besides good interest."

"Then I'll accept the main terms now, because I can promise for Featherstone," Foster replied. "If any alteration's needed, we can talk about it afterwards."

He left the office with a thrill of satisfaction. With Hulton's help, he and Lawrence could extend their operations and control a very profitable trade. Featherstone had told him he must wait a year, but by this stroke of luck he had made good when only a month had gone. Still, it was characteristic that he finished his day's work before he went to the hotel where the others were staying.

Featherstone frankly expressed his pleasure at the news, and afterwards Foster and Alice went out and stopped at the bridge on the outskirts of the town. There was a moon in the clear sky and the night was calm. The snow was crisp, but patches of uncovered wood showed where it had melted off the bridge, and the southern slope of the river bank was nearly bare. But in the stream, fissured ice drifted down a wide, dark channel; one felt that spring was coming.

Behind the town, sombre pines rolled back across the rocky wilderness; in the foreground, dazzling are lamps flung their blue reflections on the ice and the lights of the Hulton factory ran far up in gleaming rows. Civilization had reached the spot and stopped for a time. The scene held harsh contrasts between man's noisy activities and the silent austerity of the wilds.

"It's a grim country," Foster said. "But one gets fond of it."

Alice put her hand in his. "I think I shall love it; I'm not afraid, Jake. There's something in the clear air and sunshine that makes one brave. Then it's virgin country; waiting for you and the others to make good use of."

Foster nodded. "Something of a responsibility! Our efforts are crude yet and the signs of our progress far from beautiful, but we'll do better by and by. Well, I'm glad you're not daunted, though I don't think I really feared that." He paused for a moment with a smile of deep content. "Today has banished my last anxiety; I'm a wonderfully lucky man!"

"Not altogether lucky, Jake, I think. Character counts for more than fortune, and you really won success by the stubbornness you showed in the border boss. I would have come sooner or later if you hadn't met Hulton."

"I'm doubtful," Foster answered. "What I meant to win was you; but in a way, that's wrong. If you hadn't given yourself to me, it would have been impossible. Well, it has been a day of triumph, and now, if you are willing, we needn't wait very long."

Alice blushed and looked up with a shy smile. "When you want me, Jake, I'll be ready."

THE END.

Community Clubs

The Community Club movement is making good headway in the province of Manitoba under the able supervision of Mr. F. C. Middleton, organizer. A large number of clubs have been formed. Below we give copy of constitution, which gives an idea of how beneficial clubs can be to the community in which they are formed.

A general committee shall be elected composed of one or more representatives of the various organizations or sections represented in the club.

Standing committees, with conveners as above stated, and drawing two or more of their number from the general committee, may be appointed as follows:

(d) To arrange for an annual address from the local member of parliament, preferably before the opening of the legislature.

Note—It is distinctly understood, that while contentious public issues may be discussed on their merits, the community club will not allow its forum to be used for the purpose of party propaganda.

2. Better Business Committee—

This committee shall be composed of farmers and business men, and shall take under review the following:

(a) Local marketing conditions and possible improvements; good roads campaign.

(b) The wisdom of establishing a flour mill, a creamery, a market garden, or any other local enterprise.

(d) Better methods of fire protection.

(e) Sympathetic co-operation between the farmers and merchants of the community.

(f) Better credit facilities for farmers from local banks.

(g) Helping men on rented farms to become owners.

3. Young People's Committee—

Build up for the Spring Attack! Put the body in condition for an invasion of the germs of grip, pneumonia or "Spring fever."

At this time of the year most people suffer from a condition often called Spring Fever. They feel tired, worn out, before the day is half thru. They may have frequent headaches and sometimes "pimples" or pale skin and white lips.

The reason for this is that during the wintertime, shut up within doors, eating too much meat and too little green vegetables, one heaps fuel into the system which is not burned up and the cinders remain to poison the system—a clogging up of the circulation—with inactive liver and kidneys. Time to put your house in order.

For an invigorating tonic which will clarify the blood, put new life in the body, sparkle to the eyes, and a wholesome skin, nothing does so well as an herbal extract made from Blood and Stone root, Oregon grape root and Wild Cherry bark, which has been sold for the past fifty years as Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. By reason of the nerves feeding on the blood, when the blood is pure the nerves feel the effect, and neuralgia or other nerve pains disappear because such pain is the cry of the starved nerves for food.

Stratford, Ont.—"I can highly recommend Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and Pleasant Pellets. I have used these remedies twenty-five years in my family. Had a very bad case of neuralgia and 'Golden Medical Discovery' completely cured me in a very short time. I have given it to all my family, also to my grand children. I had a grand-child last summer that we thought could not live. We gave him the 'Discovery' and he is strong and healthy as any child could be. I am a great believer in Doctor Pierce's Medicines and would not be without them."—Mrs. A. Bowling, 268 Railway Ave.

Stratford, Ont.—"For many years I suffered with neuralgia. It would affect my head, extending down into my neck and shoulders. I took Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and was completely cured."—W. J. Tame, 272 Railway Avenue.

The Platform of the Non-Partisan League

In the event of a union of forces between the Non-Partisan League and the U.F.A., the former body will insist on Provincial action by the U.F.A.

This important decision has been arrived at by the Non-Partisan League section of the joint committee named by the U.F.A. and the Non-Partisans to consider methods of joining forces for direct action in politics.

Whether the decision of the Non-Partisans that political action must be directed against the Alberta Liberal government, as well as the Union government, will meet with the approval of the U.F.A. members of the joint committee, remains to be seen.

The platform for joint political action is set forth by the Non-Partisans as follows:

"That this independent political organization is in itself a proof of our objection to the old party system of government, and that the chief aim of this movement shall be to change our form of government from the party system to a business administration, with members elected under the proportional system of voting, and subject to direct legislation, including the initiative, the referendum and right of recall.

"That this convention make provision for provincial political action as well as federal.

"That all finances involved in the farmers' political movement be met directly by the members, that proper account be kept of all funds and a statement issued annually.

"That a separate department or subsidiary office be created under the U.F.A. auspices to function as the central office of the political organization.

"That the Alberta Non-Partisan be used as the official organ of the farmers' political movement, and that representatives be appointed as directors of the policy of the paper.

"That in the interests of educa-

A Good Motto to Remember

(Farmers cut this out)

Careful Straining and proper Cooling of Milk in water at this time of year is very essential to guard against loss. Both Dairy men and Manufacturers take big chances of loss if the Milk is not cooled just as carefully during winter months as in the summer. Do not trust to weather conditions.
The Milk will not cool in the centre of the can fast enough to prevent high acidity unless proper stirring is applied.

The Value of True Manhood

If any one thing was demonstrated by the Great War over all other things it was value of the individual all-round, young man, that is, the man who was developed and fit physically, morally, intellectually. In saying this it is not to be assumed that the man who was lacking in physical strength and development, or had not enjoyed the advantages of education, or, indeed, the man who was not as sound morally as he ought to have been, did not do his duty, do it well, and accomplish great things. Thousands of such men played a noble and glorious part, but many other thousands were rejected by army doctors from the opportunity of active service, and many thousands more or less illiterate men were not able to command the responsible positions which otherwise might have been entrusted to them. The all-round man had the better chance. He may have been no braver, or keener, or patriotic than others, but he had the equipment of an all-round manhood to do things, and he was entrusted with the doing, and he did it.

Just as the war called for the services of such men, so does the many and varied problems now to be faced call, and possibly even more imperatively, for men of the all-round type of manhood. The war has taught us, through the disclosures of the army medical boards, the necessity of further safeguarding the health of the people, and Governments everywhere are devoting attention to the subject. In the army emphasis was laid on the fact that the educated man was a better soldier than the uneducated one, so the army conducted schools to teach illiterate men to read and write. The effect of a man's moral standards on his whole character soon displayed itself. The cumulative effect has been to impress on the nations certain facts and important lessons which, in the general industrial and commercial race after the dollar before the war, people were largely ignoring.

Before the war there was one great organization which had not lost sight of the importance of developing the all-round man, a man strong in spirit, mind and body. During the war such an organization inevitably came into greater prominence, and found open to it a still greater field of activity and usefulness. The reference is to the Y.M.C.A. But whereas prior to the war its energies were largely confined to the cities and larger towns, the necessity for the expansion of its work to the smaller towns, villages and country parts is now seen, with the result that a Town and Country Work department has been created by the National Y.M.C.A. Council of Canada, and a plan of organization outlined for carrying on such work.

There is now being inaugurated in the country and smaller towns and villages lacking Association buildings and equipment, Y.M.C.A. work on a plan of county or district organizations. These smaller communities are incapable individually of maintaining an adequate Association organization. The expense involved imposes too severe a financial burden, while at the same time it is impossible to adapt many of the general or larger city methods to these smaller communities. There are, nevertheless, in practically every community, no matter how small, certain prominent men, a group of willing workers, and a fair amount of available money for any good work. Combining these resources in a number of communities located within reasonably accessible distance of each other, and linking the groups of workers in each community into an Association brotherhood and pooling their financial resources, provides the way for efficient administration and the employment of an expert secretary to train, direct and supervise volunteer leaders at each point within the district organization.

Such a plan is worthy of the sympathetic and enthusiastic support of the people of Western Canada. The real strength and spirit of a community does not consist in what it receives from outside, but that which it develops within itself. The plan of organization outlined for this Town and Country Work will not provide the substantial buildings, gymnasiums, and other equipment to be found in cities, but too many people in these days make the mistake of wanting things to be done for them, instead of doing for themselves. What is done for men—and for communities as well—is apt to weaken them; what they do for themselves is sure to strengthen. The old Bible saying is still true—it is more blessed to give than to receive.

It is also true that there is a task for every man and boy in every community and a boy or man for every task in every community. The maximum benefit is derived by man or boy and by the community when within the community these men, boys and tasks are brought together and an earnest effort made by the development of the abilities of the former to eliminate waste and render service.

The Y.M.C.A. aims to enlist the talent now lying latent throughout our smaller towns, villages and rural districts in the work of developing all-round boys and men in these communities, boys and men who will become the future leaders of this great Canadian commonwealth.

Now Well and Strong as Ever

After a Year of Great Suffering from Kidney Disease and Lame Back—Two Interesting Letters

Lindale, Alta. — May 19. — It is only after sickness that one properly appreciates health. The writers of these letters show how they appreciate the means whereby health was regained, and recommend the use of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills to others.

If kidney disease is to be cured it must be taken in hand early, and that is why the warning given by backache, headache and urinary derangements should be heeded and treatment begun at once.

Mr. C. E. Raymus, Lindale, Alta., writes: "I was a great sufferer from kidney disease and lame back for more than a year. A friend of mine one day told me of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, and, acting upon his advice, I tried them. After I had taken one box I felt better, so I continued until I had used five boxes. By this time I felt as well and strong as ever, and am glad to recommend Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills to anyone suffering as I did."

"I know Mr. C. E. Raymus, and believe his statement in regard to Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills to be true and correct."—John Torbett, Postmaster.

Mr. Thomas Austin, Earl Grey, Sask., writes: "I wish to let you know what Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills did for me. Last summer my back ached so much that I not only could not sleep at night, but could not lie in comfort in bed. I tried several remedies, and finally sent for three boxes of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, but was quite cured by the time I had used one box. I always recommend these Pills to anyone suffering the same as I did, as I am satisfied and thankful that they cured me."

LEMONS WHITEN AND BEAUTIFY THE SKIN

Make this beauty lotion cheaply for your face, neck, arms and hands

At the cost of a small jar of ordinary cold cream one can prepare a full quart of the most wonderful lemon skin softener and complexion beautifier, by squeezing the juice of two fresh lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of orchard white. Care should be taken to strain the juice through a fine cloth so no lemon pulp gets in, then this lotion will keep fresh for months. Every woman knows that lemon juice is used to bleach and remove such blemishes as freckles, sallowness and tan and is the ideal skin softener, whitener and beautifier.

Just try it! Get three ounces of orchard white at any drug store and two lemons from the grocer and make up a quart of this sweetly fragrant lemon lotion and massage it daily into the face, neck, arms and hands. It is marvelous to smoothen rough, red hands.

"Miss Hazel," said the Sunday school teacher to one of her sixteen year old pupils, "what are we to infer from the parable of the five wise and the five foolish virgins?"

"That we should always be on the lookout for the approach of the bridegroom," replied Miss Hazel.

YES! MAGICALLY! CORN LIFT OUT WITH FINGERS

You simply say to the drug store man, "Give me a quarter of an ounce of freezone." This will cost very little but is sufficient to remove every hard or soft corn from one's feet.

A few drops of this new ether compound applied directly upon a tender, aching corn, should relieve the soreness instantly, and soon the entire corn, root and all, dries up and can be lifted out with the fingers.

This new way to rid one's feet of corns was introduced by a Cincinnati man, who says that, while freezone is sticky, it dries in a moment, and simply shrivels up the corn without inflaming or even irritating the surrounding tissue or skin.

Don't let father die of infection or lockjaw from whitening at his corns, but clip this out and make him try it.

An Always Ready Pill.—To those of regular habit medicine is of little concern, but the great majority of men are not of regular habit. The worry and cares of business prevent it, and out of the irregularity of life comes dyspepsia, indigestion, liver and kidney troubles as a protest. The run-down system demands a corrective and there is none better than Parmelee's Vegetable Pills. They are simple in their composition and can be taken by the most delicately constituted.

When a man gets into trouble the majority of those who call to sympathize with him are only after the particulars.

SUCH comfort is possible only with an AutoStrop Razor. Why the AutoStrop in particular? Because, with the handy stropping device, there's always a sharp blade ready for use. A few turns on the strop re-aligns the saw-like edge that results from shaving; it keeps the blade free from rust; and gives you for each day's shave the keen edge of a new blade.

You do not need to take the blade out to sharpen it, nor do you have to take the AutoStrop Razor apart to clean it.

Stropping, shaving and cleaning are all done without removing the blade from the razor.

That Dodd's Kidney Pills Are the Remedy for Kidney Ills

Mr. S. Hodges, Seventy Years Old, but Still Young, Tells Why He Knows Dodd's Kidney Pills Are Good.

Hamilton, Ont., May 12, (Special). — Convinced that Dodd's Kidney Pills are a sovereign remedy for kidney ills, Mr. S. Hodges, who lives at 68 Ontario Ave., this city, is recommending them to all his friends.

"I suffered from kidney disease for about four months," Mr. Hodges says. "It started from a cold, but I rapidly got worse, and cramps in the muscles, headache, heart flutterings and rheumatism were soon added to my troubles."

"My appetite was fitful and I felt heavy and sleepy after meals. I was very irritable and I perspired from the least exertion. I was often dizzy; I suffered from shortness of breath and it was difficult to collect my thoughts."

Mr. Hodges, who is a painter by trade, and seventy years of age, shows the benefit he got from using Dodd's Kidney Pills. He only took two boxes, but with such good results that he says: "I can recommend them to all who suffer from kidney trouble."

When the heart begins to palpitate, it will beat fast for several seconds, then slow, then start to flutter, and a feeling of utter depression will come over your whole system, accompanied by weak, fainting and dizzy spells.

When the heart gets into this condition, you become weak, worn and miserable, and are unable to attend to either social, business or household duties.

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills will give prompt and permanent relief to all sufferers from any heart weakness or nerve derangements.

Mrs. Walter Greives, Apsley, Ont., writes:—"I had been run down, and doctors told me I was anemic, but did not help me with their medicines. I could not sleep nights, my heart palpitated so, and I could count every beat."

"I used to have such dizzy spells I would have to go to bed. I was not able to do any work for eight months. A cousin of mine had taken Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills and told me what they had done for her. I took eight boxes of them, and now I am able to help every day with the work. I am so thankful to tell others what they have done for me, so that they may try this great and wonderful remedy. I hope this may prove good to some one who is suffering the way I did."

GENERAL DEBILITY FOLLOWS INFLUENZA

Health Can Only Be Restored Through the Use of a Blood-Making Tonic

Debility is a loss of vitality not affecting any one part of the body particularly, but the system generally. It is dangerous because it reduces the body's resistance to disease. When debility follows acute diseases, convalescence is slow, and one's strength does not return as it should. An attack of influenza often results in debility that persists for months. Everybody recognizes that the remedy for debility is to build up the blood, because the blood goes to every part of the body, and any improvement in its condition is quickly felt throughout the system.

In cases of simple anaemia, or debility following acute diseases such as fevers or influenza, Dr. Williams' Pink Pills will be found valuable, because they really build up the blood and strengthen the nerves. There is no other medicine as valuable for growing children, and for men and women whose nervous energy has been overdrawn. They are worth a fair trial in every case where thin blood and weak nerves have started the trouble. The value of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills has been proved in the home of Mrs. John Frank, Owen Sound, who says: "My daughter Mabel was troubled with a bad cough; she was pale, weak and her appetite was very poor, indeed I feared that she was going into a decline. A friend advised the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and after taking eight boxes she was again enjoying the best of health. Again last autumn Spanish influenza attacked our home, and after the acute symptoms were past, both myself and another daughter were left very much run down. My daughter was so weak that she could not walk to school and would tremble when she got upon her feet. I was so weak myself that I could not do my housework. Again we resorted to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and in each case we took five boxes, when we were as well as ever we had been. I never enjoyed better health than I am now doing, and am able again to do my housework. After our experience it is not possible for me to say too much in favor of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills."

You can get Dr. Williams' Pink Pills through any dealer in medicine, or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Cause of Early Old Age

The celebrated Dr. Michenoff, an authority on early old age, says that it is "caused by poisons generated in the intestine." When your stomach digests food properly it is absorbed without forming poisonous matter. Poisons bring on early old age and premature death. 15 to 30 drops of "Seigel's Syrup" after meals makes your digestion sound.

woodwork. The simple principles of building construction are also dealt with.

In the blacksmithing course it is recognized that the "village blacksmith" is becoming almost extinct throughout the country and that farmers must depend upon themselves to repair machinery, shoe horses and similar work.

Some instances of unclassified work are as follows:

(a) Logs are being procured and training is to be given in "shack" building.

(b) A full demonstration will be given in regard to hog killing, dressing and packing, all done in such a way as would be carried on at such a farm house.

(c) Demonstrations at the stockyards will be given in dehorning and branding.

(d) At the slaughter houses of the packing plant, condemned carcasses have been reserved and used for class material to show the nature of some of the leading live-stock diseases.

End of Germany As a Military Power

Versailles. — Today the allied terms of peace were handed to the German delegates. The document, long as it is, is shorter than was indicated by the forecasts, which estimated its length at 100,000 words. The treaty is not printed in German. The text is in French and English, on opposite pages.

The terms of the treaty spell the end of Germany as a military power. She is deprived of virtually all her fleet; her army is cut down to nominal dimensions, and she is sharply restricted along lines through which she might seek to work militarily and rehabilitate herself. Economically, also, the future of Germany is hedged about with stipulations intended to insure her ability to pay the indemnity demanded by the allies, and to prevent her from exploiting her old-time resources as a straggling competitor of the nations about her which she over-ran and devastated during the war.

Thus, for instance, Germany, for a period of years at least, will be deprived of the coal output of the rich Saar basin, which goes to France in repayment of the damage caused by the destruction of the French coal mines. She likewise is compelled to make restitution for the damage in other ways done to France, Belgium, and the various other countries, which suffered from Teutonic depredations in various forms. In numerous other ways she is made to realize that her more than four years' career of destruction must be made good.

Elaborate preparations were made for the historic occasion of handing the peace terms to the Germans, in the Trianon hotel, both in and outside the building.

Outside there was a small army of gendarmes who formed a barrier against the approach of such persons as were not entitled to enter the room where the momentous scene was to be enacted. Inside everything was in readiness for the meeting between the allied and associated delegates with the German plenipotentiaries, although the early morning hours had witnessed a rearrangement of the great hall, for orders had been received to prepare seats for 80 delegates, instead of for 58, who were expected to comprise the maximum delegation. The French functionaries busied themselves with the task of stretching out tables to accommodate the extra guests, and laying a new rug to fit the altered dimensions. The increase of the delegations was effected at the cost of space which had been assigned to the press.

Aside from the great men gathered in the hall, the most striking feature was a large antique rug of bright, almost garish colors, which was brought from the Chateau Versailles to cover the open space in the centre of the hollow rectangle of the peace table. Although dating from the time of Louis XIV, the rug is in a perfect state of preservation. It is known as a Savonnerie, and it served to brighten the entire room. The rug was the only link in the conference chamber connecting the ceremony with the time when France was a monarchy.

Soviets Arrest Revolutionists

London. — A wireless message from Budapest announces the execution by the revolutionary tribunal of two men and imprisonment for a long term, with hard labor, of several others, under accusation of planning a conspiracy on a large scale. In a public speech, the Hungarian commissary, Mr. Szamucy, has described the duty of the Bolsheviks as the stirring up of revolution throughout the whole of Europe.

Renewing Trade in Argentina

Buenos Aires. — The Argentine legation at Berlin has cabled that a syndicate has been organized in that city to make heavy purchases of Argentine meats, cereals, and other foodstuffs. The German delegates will sail for this city immediately. The legation says they are "empowered to co-operate with German citizens and German banks in Buenos Aires in obtaining food supplies."

Government Should Aid In Exporting Grain Crop

H. W. Wood Says That Failure
Would Be Crime Against People

Calgary. — Unless at an early date adequate steps are taken by the Dominion government to assist in financing the export of the grain crop of 1919, Canada will be confronted with the greatest conceivable disaster, is the opinion of H. W. Wood, president of the United Farmers of Alberta. "If present prospects are fulfilled," said he, "the harvest of the present season will be the greatest in our history, and exactly for this reason it is our duty and it is of the utmost importance that steps should be taken to insure that it shall find an outlet.

"I can conceive of no more serious crime against the people of this country than for the authorities to fail to take the necessary steps.

"Perhaps," said he, "the government has a plan, but if so, I certainly have heard nothing of it, and it is of the utmost importance that the farmers should be reassured in this matter. The vital interests, not only of the farmers, but of the whole community, are bound up in agriculture."

Helium for Airships

Large Quantities Will Be Produced in Canada at Low Price

London. — Professor McLennan of Toronto University, was invited by the British admiralty in 1915 to investigate the possibility of large scale production of helium, found in large quantities available in natural gas in Ontario and western Canada, producible at a cost of a shilling per cubic foot. The United States also co-operated and gave large orders for machinery and plants. Thus the possibility of securing large supplies of helium was assured simultaneously with the practical details of production.

Airships inflated with helium have been developed by the British navy and the progress made warrants the opinion that in another year large quantities of helium will be produced in Canada at a low price and helium filled airships will be in service.

Scheme for Tunnel Formulated in 1867

Experiences of War Have Made It
Nearer Fulfillment

London. — The revived interest shown in the project of constructing a tunnel under the Straits of Dover to connect England and France by railway is a reminder that this scheme was first formulated in 1867, and that only the experiences of the war and the increased friendship between the two countries on either side of the channel have made it nearer fulfillment. Ever since the report of the first Anglo-French committee was made on the subject, active work has been held up by the attitude of British military opinion. That opinion, according to Sir Arthur Edd, M.P., the chairman of the house of commons channel tunnel committee has now experienced a change, and from this change arises the hope of the supporters of the scheme, that the construction of the tunnel may at last be taken in hand.

Sweden's Last Year Harvest

Stockholm. — In spite of the fact that the result of last year's harvest in Sweden might be described as medium compared with the harvest of 1917, the monetary value shows a great increase for nearly all kinds of cereals and vegetables. The central bureau of statistics estimates that the total value of the harvest amounts to the large sum of 2,360,432,000 crowns, an increase of over 1,000,000,000 crowns on the average of 1913-1917, the amount then being 1,223,287,000 crowns.

Summary of Peace Pact

Germany is deprived of her fleet.

Her army is cut to small size.

Military aspirations are prohibited.

Economic restrictions are laid down so that she can pay indemnities.

She cannot strangle competition in trade.

Saar basin coal output goes to France for years.

She must make restitution for damage to France, Belgium and other countries.

Heligoland must be demolished.

Kiel Canal must be freed.

Alsace-Lorraine will be returned.

Ex-Kaiser Wilhelm will be tried.

German territory must be ceded on all hands to surrounding allied nations.

Frontier of 1871 has to be restored.

She must renounce rights to all colonies.

Dismantling of Rhine fortresses demanded.

Assume pre-war debts on ceded territory.

Allow unhindered transit in Germany.

Internationalize her rivers and give up control of the Rhine.

Germany must also pay to limit the cost of the war to all allied nations.

Clause Stipulates Kaiser's Trial

Paris. — The clause regarding responsibilities, which was not acted on at the previous session of the plenipotentiary conference, it is understood, has been incorporated in the final draft of the treaty. This provides for the trial of the former German emperor for a supreme offence "against international morality and the sanctity of treaties," by a tribunal composed of representatives of Great Britain, the United States, France, Italy, and Japan.

Highest Spire in the World

The highest spire in the world is that of Ulm Cathedral, which is 530 feet in height. It was completed in 1890.

Desirable Six-Room House

It is not necessary that the small inexpensive home should be unattractive as to exterior or incomplete and inconvenient in the interior.

The design shown herewith demonstrates these two facts absolutely.

A glance at the perspective and the reader instinctively thinks of an expensive home, but look at the floor plans and it will be seen that the house is only twenty-two feet by twenty-eight feet. The expensive effect is due to the fact that the lines

Brief Speech Which Attended Peace Terms

Ammunition Depot Explodes

Many Killed and Country South of Brussels Devastated

Brussels. — A depot of German ammunition containing shells and bombs of every calibre and many gas shells has been exploding at the railway station at Groendael, six miles south of Brussels, where Canadian troops were inspected by King Albert eight days ago. The depot has been under guard of 150 Belgian soldiers, and six hundred German prisoners have been at work near it. It is believed there are many killed and wounded, but the number of victims will not be known for several days.

Many houses in the neighborhood have completely collapsed and windows and roofs for two miles around the scene of the explosion have been shattered. This is especially the case at Hoeylaert and neighboring towns where there are thousands of hot houses. The movement of trains over the Namur-Luxemburg line has been interrupted. It is reported that while workmen were unloading a wagon filled with shells a detonator exploded in the hands of a German prisoner, setting fire to the ammunition boxes. After the explosion the German prisoners broke the barbed wire cordon surrounding the camp and fled in all directions through the woods. Only 150 have been arrested since. The Belgian guards at the depot succeeded in escaping in safety. The explosions were clearly heard in Brussels.

Small Powers Allowed

Paris. — It was decided that the following delegations which were to be excluded will be admitted to the congress at Versailles when the peace terms are handed to the Germans: China, Siam, Cuba, Guatemala, Nicaragua, Haiti, Panama, Liberia, and Honduras.

Ambassador of Reds Was Shot

Copenhagen. — When Polish forces captured Vilna recently they captured and shot Adolphe Joffe, the former Russian Bolshevik ambassador at Berlin, according to Polish newspapers received here.

Versailles. — In opening the session of the peace conference, M. Clemenceau, presiding officer, speaking to the Germans, said:

"It is unnecessary to express needless words. You have before you the plenipotentiaries of the small and great powers united in this most cruel war, which was imposed upon them. The hour has arrived for a heavy settlement of the account."

Paul Du Faure, secretary-general of the peace conference, delivered a copy of the treaty to Count von Brockdorff-Rantzau, head of the German delegation, who made a brief reply.

Count von Brockdorff-Rantzau said: "We declare that we do not deny the extent of our defeat. We know the power of the German armies is broken."

He said he was unable to admit that Germany was solely culpable and demanded that the allies make peace according to President Wilson's points.

Germany pledged itself to repair the wrong done to Belgium and give assurance of the reconstruction of the territories in northern France.

Count von Brockdorff-Rantzau asked for the liberation of German prisoners and said that Germany adopted the League of Nations.

Siberian Army Needs Clothes

Unique Plan Devised for Providing Wearing Apparel

Vladivostok. — The Siberian army needs underwear and the powers that be have devised a unique plan for providing this wearing apparel. In brief, this solution is conscription of underwear.

The male population of the city is ordered to provide the clothing on the following scale:

Those enjoying a salary of 600 to 1,000 roubles a month must supply one set. Those who earn from 1,000 to 1,500 roubles a month are asked for two sets. From 1,500 to 2,000 roubles the tax is three sets, and from 2,000 roubles upward, four sets. Owners of real estate and commercial and industrial firms have to furnish underwear on the same scale, according to the income of their business. A set of underwear consists of one shirt, one pair of pants, one pair of socks and two pairs of foot rags.

Munich Expresses Joy

Munich. — All Munich celebrated the victory over the Soviet government. The streets were crowded with people who cheered the passing troops or gave them refreshments. Captured Spartacists were hooted as they were escorted through the streets, bands played national airs outside the captured palace and the crowds sang patriotic anthems.

Germany Refuses to Pay Indemnity

Paris. — The German delegates to the peace congress declare that they will sign the peace treaty, but that Germany will not pay an indemnity. In the discussion of peace terms by Germany, through both her official and unofficial spokesmen, she has invariably drawn a distinction between reparations and indemnity, constraining the latter in effect as punitive damages. It seems probable, therefore, that the refusal to pay an "indemnity" would mean in effect that she would decline to pay what she regarded as such damages.

Starving People Shot by Reds

London. — Four hundred persons were killed in Moscow last week when the Red Guards were called upon to disperse rioters, says an Exchange Telegraph company dispatch quoting advices from East Germany. The casualties resulted when crowds assembled, demanding food and shouting "Down with Lenin and Trotsky."

Chinese Objections

Pekin. — The Chinese cabinet, at a meeting decided to instruct the Chinese delegates in Paris not to sign a peace treaty assigning the German rights in Shantung to the Japanese.

Here's One Serious Loss That You Can Stop

You have several hundred dollars worth of farm machinery. You probably leave those machines outside in the fields or in the barnyard when they are not in use.

The steel and iron parts rust and the wood and canvass parts rot quickly, making extensive repairs necessary every season until the machines are entirely weather-killed.

Isn't that about what is happening on your farm year after year? Your binders last 3 to 5 years. They should last 10 to 15 years.

Plows, disc, seeders, mowers, rakes, etc., are all weather killed long before they are worn out with work.

This makes an annual loss to you of anywhere from $100 and up according to the number of machines you have.

That loss can be very largely stopped by building an inexpensive shed in which to put your machines and give them proper care when not in use.

Remember that they are in use a very small part of each year and they should be well protected and cared for during their long idleness.

We have spent considerable time in working out practical machine shed designs at different prices.

We are sure that one or more of these designs will fit your needs, and we are positive it will prove a splendid investment for you, especially now when machines are so high priced and scarce.

Stop this waste and the drain on your profits. Call and see our machine shed designs at once.

The W. C. T. U. will hold their meeting on Tuesday, May 20th, at the home of Mrs. J. Bender.

Addison Ebey of Waterloo, Ont., has accepted a position with W. G. Liesemer in his hardware store, in place of J. R. Good.

Mr. C. Peterson of Tisdale, Sask., and Mr. N. H. Peterson of Bruce Mines, Ont., arrived here on Tuesday on a visit to their father, Mr. C. L. Peterson.

Sec.-Treas. A. Brusso submits his annual financial statement of the town, which appears in this issue of the Pioneer. This is a matter that should be read by every taxpayer of Didsbury.

J. R. Good, who has been employed at the W. G. Liesemer hardware store for some time, resigned his position to travel for a Saskatoon firm which manufactures road machinery and culverts.

Miss Dora Acton left on Friday last for her home near Saskatoon. Before leaving she was the recipient of a large number of beautiful wedding presents from her many friends in town and the Rebekah Lodge also gave her a miscellaneous shower on Wednesday.

They say there are all kinds of signs of a dry season this year. One of our farmers let a contract to have to have his house moved, but the contractors put it into a slough. They evidently thought that Joe wanted to do some fishing, which is against the "dry" signs.

The many friends of Mr. C. L. Peterson will be glad to hear that he is recovering from his recent severe indisposition and is again taking an active interest in outside life. It looks like old times to see Mr. Peterson on the street again, and it is hoped that he will be spared a good while yet, to make life interesting for us.

Pte. G. W. Price of Bowden, who enlisted with the 187th Battalion of Red Deer, returned from England last week. In the fighting at Arras in September last he received a shrapnel wound on the left hand, and although getting the best hospital treatment in England he has not been able to get full use of it. He left yesterday for Ogden Home for further treatment.

On another page will be found a contribution from Professor E. A. Howes, B.S.A., Dean of the School of Agriculture, Edmonton, explaining the splendid opportunity given to returned men to take a five months' course in the various branches of agriculture. This certainly should be taken advantage of by those intending to go on the land, so as to get a practical training in farming. Read the article over in order to get all particulars.

Starting on Saturday night, W. Farrington, manager of the movies, will run a series of splendid illustrative films showing the different industries carried on in Canada. These films are exceedingly interesting and will give one information as to the different operations which go into the manufacture of the every day things you use; consequently their educative value is very high. All these films are made in Canadian factories. The showing for Saturday night is The Story of the Cocoa Bean.

The Y.M.C.A. Drive! In Didsbury District

Next week the committee formed to canvass the Didsbury district for its share of the funds needed to carry on the Y.M.C.A. work will commence its duties, and it is hoped that the general public will still show its appreciation of this great work by subscribing liberally to its funds, as well as encouraging these men who are giving their time for this purpose. The men who will canvass the district are as follows:

Messrs. W. G. Zimmerman, J. E. Berscht, Dr. J. L. Clarke, Rev. Dr. Macgregor, Dr. Evans, H. E. Osmond, F. Moye, Dr. Malmas, E. E. Freeman, T. W. Cuncannon, W. J. Hillyard, G. Madden, R. I. Piles, J. W. Phillipson, N. Clarke, H. W. Chambers.

The monies collected during this campaign are to be used to sustain the work being carried on by the "Y" in soldiers' transport service, reconstruction and industrial and boys' work in Canada; and the urgent need for funds for these purposes are very great. The publicity given in the columns of the Pioneer during the past few weeks has fully explained the purposes for which the money is needed, and now the time has come when the public are again called on to show their appreciation for what the "Y" did for our boys in and out of the trenches in France and Flanders, by subscribing liberally.

Don't let this district fall down. We have done well in the past; keep it up a little longer.
